AMERICAN UNIVERSITY OFF-CAMPUS PROGRAM

Three American University courses will be offered in the spring semester at Headquarters Building. Each offers three semester-hours credit. Two are continuations of courses begun last fall and are open to graduate students and advanced undergraduates. These are:

19.513 Equilibrium Analysis II: Theory of Income Distribution. Tuesdays. Prerequisite: 19.512 or permission of the instructor.

19.507 Quantitative Economic Analysis. Thursdays. Prerequisites: 19.301, 41.310, and either 19.307 or 41.221.

The new course, for undergraduates, is:

19.301 Intermediate Economic Theory. Wednesdays. Prerequisites: 19.300 (or six hours of acceptable background in Introductory Economics)

American University's courses are open to overt employees. The courses will begin in the week of 4 February and will run through the week of 20 May. Classes begin at 4:45 p.m. Fee for each of these courses is $66.

Registration will be handled by members of the OTR Registrar Staff in room 4F-31 on Friday, 1 February, from 11:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. It is planned that W. Donald Bowles, Chairman of the Economics Department at American University, will be available for counseling. Dr. Bowles is SECRET cleared.
